PATRIOTS. Do you want a saloonless state? Do you want the liquor traffic to die? Do you want to kill the greatest disease breeder?

Do you want to give our Hoosier boys and girls a fighting chance? Do you want Indiana dry in 1914? Do you want to bring joy to millions of homes?

Do you want to dissolve our partnership in the rum business? Then VOTE THE PROHIBITION ticket next Tuesday.

Is it right and honest to curse the saloonkeeper from pulpit and pew and then vote for a license party that gives him a permit for a price and then takes the price to pay the school-teacher?

Is it any better for you Brotherhoods and churchmen to pick out from whisky parties here and there men to vote for? They still stand on an unclean platform. Is it fair to placard church and Sunday school rooms with the sentiment "the saloon must die" and then support license parties that continue its life and then expect the Almighty to forgive you? "Woe to that city or nation that is founded on blood." "Righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people." If you want to dissolve your partnership and swear not another boy shall become a drunkard by your ballot then pull down the lever on the Rising Sun and God will bless you.

DO YOU LIKE A FINE JUICY APPLE

The celebrated Baldwin Apple will keep long into the winter.

Robertson Bros. Co. 10th Anniversary Begins Monday November 2nd

200 Barrels of Apples to Be Given Away. A full heaping three bushel barrel of large, red, juicy Baldwin Apples given away—

Monday, November 2nd with every $20.00 you spend at Our Store. They'll be delivered to your home free of charge.

NOTE—Warren Ballinger of New Troy, Michigan, a good friend of ours, raised these apples. We were up to his orchard two weeks ago, just eating apples. Every one we bit into tasted better than the one we had just eaten.

Mr. Ballinger has always sold his orchard out to Chicago Fruit Packers and was ready to sell again, when we hit upon the idea of making a lot of folks happy, if we could distribute these apples in South Bend. We made him a proposition. Every apple was to be sound and perfect.

No apples smaller than 2½ inches through—all selected, and carefully packed. "We would take every barrel he had."

We have a letter from him dated Friday, stating:— Have shipped you 100 barrels today and will ship another 100 Saturday.

So we're going to have 200 barrels to give to South Bend and Mishawaka customers on Monday morning.

Special Note:

For the benefit of those wishing to club together their purchases, we will deliver a barrel of apples for them to divide wherever they wish it. Clubs must not be larger than four persons.

See our special add in tomorrow's papers of the greatest merchandising event we ever attempted. Never before in our history have we offered such high class merchandise for such low prices.
